

Confidence Men Offer Medicare 'Discount'

A new type of confidence man has appeared in some sections of the country since passage of the "medicare" provisions of the Social Security programs, Miles Davis, Social Security district manager in Torrance, has cautioned residents of the Southwest area.

"These confidence men often represent themselves as employees of the Social Security Administration and say that they are authorized to sell and receive payment for health insurance in advance, at a discount," said Davis. "These men attempt to swindle elderly people by confusing them about the new health insurance program." The first line of defense against these swindlers is accurate information about both kinds of health insurance protection available under the program — hospital insurance and medical insurance. The most accurate source of such information is the Social Security Office at 1408 Crenshaw Blvd. The telephone number is 320-4020.

An equally important line of defense against such swindlers, is the use of caution. Should a stranger implying that he works for Social Security call on you, al-

Future of UN Subject Of Meeting

Dr. Leonard Freedman and Dr. Walter Cole will discuss the future of the United Nations at a Harbor College Issues Conference Saturday, Oct. 23. The conference is sponsored by the Harbor Area Chapter of the United Nations Association of the United States.

Dr. Freedman, associate director of the University Extension and a lecturer in political science at UCLA, will speak at a 10 a.m. session. He will speak on "Nationalism and Internationalism."

Dr. Cole, whose topic will be "The United Nations and the Problems Ahead," will speak during an afternoon session. He is a Unitarian minister serving the Unitarian Society of Pomona Valley and has made several radio and television appearances.

REGISTRATION for the conference will begin at 9 a.m. at Seahawk Center on the Harbor College campus. Opening ceremonies are scheduled for 9:30 a.m.

Theme of the meeting is "The United Nations—What Next?"

Harold W. Garvin, president of the local chapter, urges all interested persons to attend. There is no charge for the conference. A luncheon will be served for $1.35 per person, Garvin said.
